

MAKE NEW HOMES

Over Fifty Families Going From Rock Island County as Colonists.

EXODUS HEAVIEST ON RECORD

Probably 250 Persons Go to Farms in the Dakotas and Canada.

Never has the movement of residents of this county to another part of the country for permanent abode been so pronounced as it is this spring. Over fifty families, including probably 250 persons, have gone within a month or are going before April 1. Nearly all will settle in the north, either in North or South Dakota or in Canada. This is the effect of the crowding of rural districts and the consequent rapid rise in the price of land during the last few years.

Most of those who are going come from the country, but the factory employees of Moline and residents of the smaller towns are also well represented. The majority are young married couples, but there are also a considerable number of middle-aged who have found it impossible to pay for land here at the ruling prices and who see chances of owning their own homes in a few years in more sparsely settled regions. All are willing to face the privations of pioneers in a colder climate to gain their financial independence. Many, no doubt, hope to return at some future time with a competence. A large portion will do so, probably, whether they attain a competence or not.

Heads of Families Go First. The usual plan is for the head of the family to go first, with the household effects, and prepare some sort of a home to which the wife and children will be brought later. In some cases the families will remain here till fall or next spring.

Those going to Canada will settle for the most part in Assinabola or Alberta. Most of these expect to homestead their claims and to do this they must forego their allegiance to the United States and become subjects to the crown of Great Britain.

Of course, the movement is not confined to Rock Island county, and a large part of the business of the three railway lines entering the city is now composed of household goods and farm animals and implements consigned for the north. Whole trains are made up of emigrants' effects.

INSPECTION OF COMPANY A Review by Regular Army Officer From Fort Sheridan.

The members of Company A, I. N. G., will be inspected this evening at the armory by Capt. Macnab of the Twenty-seventh United States Infantry, stationed at Fort Sheridan, Chicago. The report of the inspection, which is the most important of the year, will be forwarded to the secretary of war. The company has been making preparation for the inspection for some time, and is expected to make excellent showing.

Afflicted With Rheumatism. "I was and am yet afflicted with rheumatism," says Mr. J. C. Bayne, editor of the Herald, Addington, Indian Territory, "but thanks to Chamberlain's Pain Balm am able once more to attend to business. It is the best of liniments." If troubled with rheumatism give Pain Balm a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. One application relieves the pain. For sale by all leading druggists.

One would think the laxative idea in a cough syrup should have been advanced long before it was. It seems the only rational remedy for coughs and colds would be to move the bowels and clean the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs at the same time. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar does this. It is the original laxative cough syrup, the best known remedy for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. Tastes good and harmless. Sold by all druggists.
